Angel Tree at CAM

The Angel Tree, an annual Christmas tradition at CAM, is up and we still have many children's wishes waiting to be fulfilled. Each angel represents a 'wished-for' Christmas gift for a child hoping for a Merry Christmas. If you prefer, general toy donations for boys of all ages and teens are also needed. Please bring new, unwrapped toys and gifts to CAM by December 20th.

Angels' Attic Christmas Room

Quality items at discount prices abound in the Angels' Attic Christmas Room. The shelves are restocked daily with holiday accessories, Christmas ornaments, collectibles, and Christmas clothing for children and adults. A wonderful selection of new designer jewelry is available for purchase, as well. Proceeds from purchases at Angels' Attic benefit families in need who seek help at CAM.

The Food Pantry

Christmas Food Baskets are being prepared for CAM families. To complete the food baskets, donations of the following would be greatly appreciated.

- Frozen Turkeys
- Boxed potatoes
- Canned sweet potatoes
- Cranberry sauce
- Stuffing mixes

Cypress Assistance Ministries (CAM) is located at 11202 Huffmeister, Houston, TX 77065 and will serve hundreds of families again this Christmas. Please make supporting CAM with a donation to the Food Pantry, Angel Tree, or a monetary gift part of your annual Christmas tradition. See our website, www.cypressassistanceministries.com for further information.

Donations to CAM can be made Monday through Wednesday from 10AM – 6PM and Thursday through Saturday from 10AM – 3 PM.

Cy-Fair ISD Begins

New Volunteer Tutoring Program

TAG (Targeting Achievement Globally) is a new program designed by the Cypress-Fairbanks ISD Curriculum Coordinators for Math and Science and the VIPS Executive Board to provide tutoring for students in need of help to reach their full academic potential. In this first year of the program, three elementary schools have been chosen by the district as targets for the TAG Team. Members of the Team will be working with students on those campuses on a consistent basis for the remainder of the school year.

An initial orientation meeting was held on October 30 at the Berry Center for volunteers interested in being a part of this cutting edge program. Ongoing training with the Math and Science Helping Teachers will be provided for volunteers prior to working with students.

If you are interested in joining this elite group of volunteers and being a TAG Team pioneer, please contact the Partners in Education Office at 281/894-3950 for more information.

How to Get Ready to Play Tennis

Submitted by Fernando M. Velasco

This is a popular time for injuries to occur on the tennis courts. In the past weeks, players have incurred back problems, tendons and ligament tears, and over stretched muscles in calves and groins.

Remember your age!! While young, all muscles, tendons and ligaments were elastic and easily lubricated. Now, we are sitting in our offices in front of desks and computers or we are driving kids all over the city for school activities and sports, and some of you are going to all the sales in the Malls. Then, we rush to play tennis and get hurt!!

Before hitting the first tennis ball, whether you are taking a lesson, a clinic, playing for a league, or socially, you should spend at least 20 minutes doing your stretching exercises.

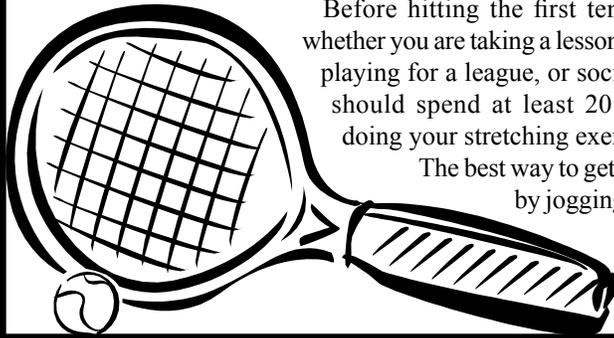

The best way to get started is by jogging in place for about three minutes. Researchers have found that if we warm up our bodies by one degree, our chances of getting injured drop by 90%. After jogging, start stretching your legs, and move to your knees, groin muscles, calf muscles, waist, back and neck. From there, rotate your shoulders and arms. Never neglect your elbows and wrists since they are the most susceptible to injury by a bad hit. Now you have significantly lowered your chances of injury during play.

As important as it is to do "pre-activity" stretching, it is also essential to do "post-activity" stretching. This is the time when your ligaments and muscles are in the best condition to be stretched to the limit without injury.

If are healing a present injury, always ice the area after playing and protect it by wearing the proper brace. If the injury still does not go away, it may be time to see a specialist and get an MRI to find out about the injury and get professional help to help you heal.

So get your rackets ready while the weather is nice and cool, get a good warm up and enjoy the "game of a lifetime".

The Importance of Physical Activity

Submitted by Alica Harrison

"The first wealth is health." —Ralph Waldo Emerson

The evidence is growing and is more convincing than ever! People of all ages who are generally inactive can improve their health and well-being by becoming active at a moderate-intensity on a regular basis.

Regular physical activity substantially reduces the risk of dying of coronary heart disease, the nation's leading cause of death, and decreases the risk for stroke, colon cancer, diabetes, and high blood pressure. It also helps to control weight; contributes to healthy bones, muscles, and joints; reduces falls among older adults; helps to relieve the pain of arthritis; reduces symptoms of anxiety and depression; and is associated with fewer hospitalizations, physician visits, and medications. Moreover, physical activity need not be strenuous to be beneficial; people of all ages benefit from participating in regular, moderate-intensity physical activity, such as 30 minutes of brisk walking five or more times a week.

Despite the proven benefits of physical activity, more than 50% of American adults do not get enough physical activity to provide health benefits. 25% of adults are not active at all in their leisure time. Activity decreases with age and is less common among women than men and among those with lower income and less education.

Insufficient physical activity is not limited to adults. More than a third of young people in grades 9-12 do not regularly engage in vigorous-intensity physical activity. Daily participation in high school physical education classes dropped from 42% in 1991 to 33.0% in 2005. In 2005, 10% of high school students did not participate in any moderate or vigorous physical activity.

Unraveling the Mystery of Men's Health

by: Sandeep Mistry, M.D., M.P.H.

Lifestyle, Aging and Infertility

Did you know that every year 6 million couples seek medical advice for infertility?

There are even more couples that have difficulty conceiving children but lack the resources or knowledge to even seek medical attention. Of all infertile couples that undergo an evaluation, there is a male contributor to the problem identified HALF THE TIME. In fact, both patients and doctors underestimate the possibility that abnormal sperm may be an important factor to the couple's difficulties. Many cultures and civilizations equate fertility with manliness or strength. This would help explain why men are reluctant to explore whether they may be the cause of a couple's infertility.

Women dictate the pace of when couples decide to start a family and as that age creeps upward, the impact of age and lifestyle on men's fertility becomes more important. The number of new fathers over the age of 35 has almost doubled in the last 30 years.

It is widely known that the chances for a woman to conceive a baby drop as she ages, especially after the age of 35. What is less well known is that one of the most important reasons for this drop in pregnancy rates have to do with the male partner.

Studies of couples undergoing high-tech infertility treatments have shown that even with assisted-reproduction a man's chances of fathering a child decrease with each passing year. Even though men are constantly making new sperm, the volume, motility (ability to move toward its destination, an awaiting egg), and structure of sperm all decline with age.

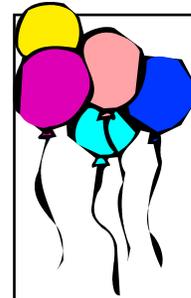

Additionally, older fathers are at increased risk of having children with Down Syndrome and psychiatric disorders.

This is not to say that older men can not father healthy children even into their 50's, 60's and 70's. However, as men delay fatherhood longer the impact of environmental and lifestyle factors on fertility may be getting worse. It is important to learn what lifestyle choices can impact sperm quality and seek help early if you feel that you may have a problem.

Tips on maximizing your fertility:

- Stop smoking, the chemicals in cigarettes are toxic to sperm and their DNA.
- Just Say No. Using marijuana even once every two weeks will have a negative effect on sperm.
- Limit Coffee to 1 or 2 cups per day
- Avoid excessive heat, including: prolonged saunas, hot tubs, or laptop use on your lap, and tight fitting shorts, all of which can damage sperm
- Exercise regularly.
- Limit alcohol to moderate amounts no more than twice per week.
- Have good nutritional habits.
- Do not take higher than recommended doses of Vitamins or supplements.
- Be aware of sexual problems and do not hesitate to ask for medical help.

Sandeep G. Mistry, M.D., M.P.H. is a graduate of the Baylor College of Medicine in Houston, TX where he also completed his residency in Urologic Surgery. He has a B.S. in Chemical Engineering and earned his Masters Degree in Public Health from the University of Texas School of Public Health at Houston. Tips for Pet Owners

1. If your dog buries bones you give it, don't worry. Just keep on giving the bones and eventually they'll realize they are getting them regularly and don't need to put them aside for 'later'.
2. Don't walk pups until they are mature. The best exercise is play in the park or garden until they are old enough to be taken on serious walk
3. Treats - consider almonds, hazelnuts, dried apricots, bananas or pumpkin seeds? They don't mess up your coat pockets and are actually good for your dog.
4. How much do I feed my dog? Answer - if they are getting fat or thin, you need to change the quantity you feed, regardless of what it says on the packaging of the food. The ideal weight for your dog is so that the ribs can be felt, but not seen.
5. Cracking tartar off dog's teeth is easy with a strong thumb nail. Don't worry if there is a small amount of bleeding.
6. If your dog is scooting on their bum, it is not likely to be worms. The usual reason for this is full or even infected anal glands. Glands like these can also explain sudden bad breath.
7. If you find it hard to give your cat a pill, always use two people, get one to hold the cat's shoulders while you support the head from above. Tip the head back until they are looking at the ceiling. Hold pill in your thumb and forefinger. Open the mouth with middle or ring finger of the same hand then quickly push the pill, gently over the back of the tongue. The trick then is to keep the mouth closed until the cat licks its lips. You can stroke the throat. Cats cannot lick their lips until they've swallowed the pill.
8. For constipated cats or for cats prone to getting bugged up, add a small amount of stewed rhubarb to the food or stewed pumpkin or squash.
9. Cats can be very stubborn about what they will and will not eat. To change a cat from one feeding type food to another, be prepared to change things very gradually over a very long period - gradually.
10. Cats are very fussy about drinking. If your cat will not drink room temperature water from the tap, try pouring out a small amount of mineral water whenever you're in the kitchen. You can put the bowl in the fridge if your cat likes cold water. Some cats will only drink flowing water.
11. If your cat is licking hair away from the top of the tail or in a circle between its legs, first get them checked for fleas and infection. If there is no improvement, then consider a restriction diet, after talking to your vet. If you still have no improvement, it may be a stress problem where the cat is licking themselves for comfort.
