The Easter Bunny is Coming...

Spring Events Scheduled

Spring is around the corner and in the Village Creek community change is in the air. The warmer weather has ushered in everything from the anticipation for the annual Easter egg hunt to new positions within the community being filled.

The Easter Parade and egg hunt are just around the corner! Mark your calendar for Saturday, April 4 and meet for the parade in the Sunset Arbor Cul-de-sac at 1:50 pm. The parade will feature a contest for the best decorated tricycles, bikes, and wagons, so pull out the crepe paper and balloons and see just how creative you can be! The annual Easter egg hunt will follow the parade starting at 3:00pm. There will be two hunts, one for 0-4 year olds and the other for 5-12 year olds located in the area around the pool. Carnival style games are also being planned, as well as, a visit from the Easter Bunny.

Donations of plastic eggs filled with candy, stickers, and other goodies are needed and would be greatly appreciated. There will be a basket placed by the front door at 12431 Lake Vista Dr. for donations. Volunteers are also needed to help with the festivities. If you are interested in volunteering to help please email Peggy Lastrapes at peggyjo108@yahoo.com.

Village Creek also has some new faces this spring. Peggy Lastrapes is the new social chair for the neighborhood. She along with her family of husband, Chris, and kids, Emily, Shawn, and Jonah made the community their home in July 2008.

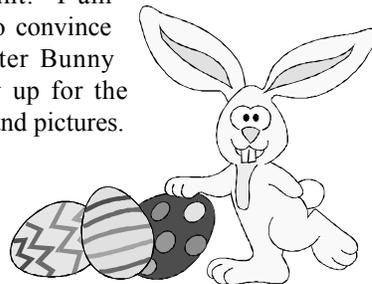

When asked about her new role Lastrapes said, "We are looking forward to meeting our neighbors and becoming more involved in the community. I would like to form a social committee to help plan social events in the community. We would meet once a month to plan events. If you are interested, please email me."

Tisha Butler is another new addition. Butler is the new editor for the Village Gazette. She has lived in the Village Creek neighborhood since May 2006 with her husband, James, and four children, Ginny, Becka, Keely, and Gavin.

"I would love for residents to email me at tisha@myvillagecreek.net and let me know what is going on, what they are concerned about, or what they would like to see covered in the newsletter," Butler said. "This is a great community and we have loved living here."

With the warm sun shining down most days, residents make ready for the spring and all the wonderful events planned in the community that come with the gorgeous spring days.

We are trying to plan an afternoon of family activities in addition to the Easter Egg Hunt. I am trying to convince the Easter Bunny to show up for the parade and pictures.

At Least One Coyote Spotted in Wooded Area of Village Creek

Neighborhood residents need to be aware that there is at least one coyote in the wooded common area. There have been many reports that they were coming from Treeline. Over the weekend, Ann Fuller spotted one sitting in the grassy area in the cul-de-sac on Berry Shoals at 7 am. Later she came face to face with one at the woods on the cul-de-sac of Ginger Ridge.

Fuller explained, "On my walk I overheard little girls yelling in the area that there was a lost dog hiding in the woods. I knew what they must be talking about, but since I was with my grandbaby in a stroller and my small dog, I headed straight home. I yelled and warned another family with 4 small children and a dog about the close by coyote. They are hungry and looking for food and partially nocturnal, I think."

Please be on alert when walking in the wooded area and do not leave trash or pet food out as they will continue to hang around as long as there is food for them.

The Northwest Flyers Track Club will host a free open house / registration session for all middle and high school athletes and their parents interested in joining for the 2009 season. The event will be held on Friday, April 3, 2009, from 7:00 – 8:30 PM at the Champions Park subdivision clubhouse, 13635 Champions Park Drive**, Houston, TX 77069. The session will begin with a very important program overview / orientation at 7:00 PM. All interested athletes and parents should report on time.

Ever Imagined a Shopping Spree Where the Clothes are Free?

Submitted by: Jane Seaman

At present we are all looking for ways to cut back on expenses, so what if I told you there's a place where you can shop with no need for a credit card, a check book, or cash and that this wonderful place is right on your doorstep, literally.

As an Image Consultant when a client says they "have nothing to wear" the first thing I do is take them shopping in their closet, because within lies a multitude of opportunities. Consider what is actually in your closet; clothes that you liked when you purchased them, clothes from the past that remind you of a particular time or event and possibly some clothes that were gifted. But so many items are never worn. Why? When my clients have an opportunity to consider this, their response is often the same; the closet is so full they forget what they have, they are bored with their clothes, some items no longer fit, some items are out of style, or they have nothing to match it with. Does this sound familiar?

Think again! Your closet can become your personal boutique, all you have to do to shop there is allocate some time. If possible include a family member or friend to help and encourage you. Then open up your closet and go shopping. Take out each clothing item and really, really look at it. If it doesn't fit, could it be made to fit? There are an abundance of excellent tailors in Houston. Look at the item differently, let's say it was a long paisley dress, could it now be shortened and worn over leggings for a more modern look? Could you remove the sleeves, add a belt? Often styles have changed with Jackets and the ones in your closet may now be too long, or have those wonderful 'Dallas' shoulder pads. Yes, they are still lurking in closets everywhere! Could the shoulder pads be removed and the jacket shortened? Sometimes it's simply a case of changing the buttons. Imagine that navy jacket with new bright red buttons, a red tee and denim jeans, it might just work.

The key to successful closet shopping is to have fun and think outside of the box; try that cocktail dress on then add a denim jacket and a simple pair of sandals for a more dressed-down look. Add bright accessories to a tee and a pair of slacks for a more dressed-up look. Try colors together you would never have dreamed of matching, you'll be wonderfully surprised. Forget those old rules of Black and Brown should not be worn together, yes, they can. Consider 'color blocking'; put together an outfit entirely in one color, right down to the shoes, this will minimize horizontal lines on the body and is guaranteed to make us look taller and slimmer. Now add bright accessories to give the outfit a wow factor. Forget the rules and be creative. The chances are, at minimum, you'll find six to ten new outfits in YOUR closet.

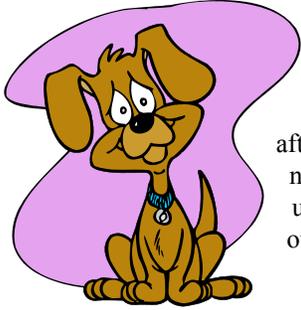

When returning your clothes to the closet hang them in groups; put all your jackets together and then the same for trousers, blouses, skirts, dresses. For your tops try hanging them in order of sleeve length. Hang your suites as separate pieces so you can visually see that they can be worn with other items other than just as a suit.

And at the end of your closet shopping you may have found some items that have to go. Take a look at these items closely and ask has the item been worn much, is it somewhat in style? If so, then make sure they are cleaned and pressed and take them along to one of the many consignment stores. You might just earn some extra cash. If you feel the item is not up to being sold then a charity will make good use of it? And finally, in six months time go through the whole process again and reinvent some new outfits from your personal boutique....what fun!

He taught students a few tips about being a good friend to others, cooperating, and steering clear of and reporting bullies. His visit will be fondly remembered by his enthralled audience for years to come.

Stray and Feral Cats Draw Attention of Coyote

There aren't many things in life as cute as watching cats play. They jump, tumble, and pounce. You can't help, but smile. However, stray and feral cats can pose serious risks to residents and pets. Small animals such as these attract larger predators. It has been reported that a family of feral cats is living in the wooded area behind section 13 of Village Creek and has drawn the attention of a coyote. This alone is enough to peak residents concern, but strays also bring a myriad of other sources of distress. That is why it is important that home owners do not feed the stray animals that try to make the neighborhood their home.

Stray cats are defined as cats that are lost or have become separated from a home or owner. However, when people refer to stray cats, they usually mean feral cats. Feral cats are simply non-domesticated cats living in the wild. They were born in the wild and have never had a home. They will never behave as domesticated cats do. They are truly wild animals and can be quite ferocious.

At the top of the list of problems these animals cause is the many health issues they bring. Stray cats are a source of fatal and non-fatal diseases transmittable to humans and domestic cats. These include rabies, plague, ringworm, toxoplasmosis, cat scratch fever, allergies, feline leukemia, feline distemper and secondary bacterial infections.

Another concern these animals present is the effect they have on the natural food chain in the area. The stray and feral cats can reduce the number of native predators in the area by exhausting the food supply. Feral cats are extremely effective hunters and have been known to seriously deplete natural wildlife population, especially birds. They feed on song birds, game birds, mice, rodents, rabbits and other small animals. They are also known to kill poultry and harm domestic pets.

While several cute kittens and their mother are tempting to feed, the reality is it is not worth the risk, and you may soon find you are swarmed by hungry felines looking for a free handout!

Sustainable Living Houston Kicks off National Bike Month!

On Friday, May 1, 2009, residents of Cypress, Texas, will bicycle from the Coles Crossing subdivision to the nearby METRO Park & Ride and transit oriented development. By riding bikes to the Park & Ride, and then taking the #217 METRO bus to their work locations, the residents will complete a long-haul, suburb-to-city multi-modal commute without the use of private automobiles.

METRO has recently installed bike racks at the Cypress Park & Ride, and these will be used to secure the bicycles. There is also limited space for taking a few bikes in the sub-floor storage compartments of the # 217 buses.

Residents will assemble at 6:50 am on Friday, May 1, 2009 at the Coles Crossing Community Center parking lot and depart at 7:00 am sharp. Use of helmets, front & rear lights, red rear reflectors and articles of reflective clothing will be mandatory. Residents will ride on the sidewalk south on Barker-Cypress Rd. to Jarvis Rd., whereupon the group will transition to riding on Jarvis Rd. in a vehicular cycling mode. The total ride distance will be about a mile each way, and the time to the Park & Ride from the neighborhood will be about 6 minutes.

The rain date for this ride is May 15, 2009.

There will be a highly recommended pre-ride safety briefing at the Coles Crossing Community Center parking lot on April 25th at 8:00 a.m. where helmets, lighting, bike commuter clothing, and vehicular cycling will be discussed, as well as a test ride of the route. This briefing will be led by a League of American Bicyclist certified cycling instructor.

We Challenge What You Pay For Electricity!

If SparkPowerBank isn't your current electricity provider...chances are you're paying too much!

I'm Texas Energy Analyst Alan Lammey. Maybe you've heard me on the radio talking about the market forces that drive energy prices. I'm here to tell you that you're not stuck paying those high prices to big electric companies anymore! Stop it.

Why pay more than you have to? Those days are over!

Why would you want to go with an electric provider that charges you more, when you can go to www.sparkpowerbank.com and pay far less for the same electricity?
