Two Families Receive Keys to New Habitat for Humanity Home

Thrivent Financial and area churches support affordable home construction

Habitat for Humanity Northwest Harris County (Habitat NWHC) celebrates the construction of two more Habitat NWHC homes at a dedication ceremony on July 20, 2013 at 8:30am at Hamill Crossing, a completely designed and built Habitat NWHC neighborhood. The new homeowners, Katherine Garrett and Martha Turcios will thank all those who worked so hard to help them reach this goal and there will be an open house of the newly completed homes directly following.

Each Habitat for Humanity homeowner puts in what we call 'Sweat Equity' by working on the construction site to build their home alongside local volunteers. Ms. Garrett and Ms. Turcios were no exception and both put in well over the minimum of 350 Sweat Equity hours required by the program. They will both be closing on their homes the week following the dedication ceremony.

Ms. Garrett's home is unique because it was sponsored and built by Thrivent Financial for Lutherans and area Lutheran churches. Sponsorship is the process by which a church, company or organization gives a financial donation that Habitat then uses to purchase the materials to build the house. This generosity helps increase Habitat's ability to build more homes in its ongoing effort to eliminate substandard housing here in Northwest Harris County.

Ms. Turcios is unique because upon closing on her home, she will be the oldest homeowner that Habitat NWHC has ever had. At 74 years of age Ms. Turcios has never owned her own home or even had her own bedroom. Ms. Turcios' home was also sponsored and built by area churches.

Ms. Turcios and Ms. Garrett worked hard and formed a warm relationship with the volunteers that helped build their homes and the end result is two beautiful homes that their families can enjoy for many years to come.

Through donations of money, materials and volunteer labor, Habitat NWHC was able to build the homes and sell them at an affordable price. Ms. Garrett and Ms. Turcios will purchase their homes with a no-profit loan, and their monthly mortgage payments will be used to build more Habitat houses.

"It has been exciting to get to know these two neighbors during the construction of their homes and the completion of the Habitat program. I was talking to Katherine [Garrett] just the other day about how amazing it is that all these people that didn't even know her before came out and worked so hard so that she and her family could have a decent place to live. It truly is an amazing and awe inspiring process." – Karly Grilliot, Habitat NWHC Development Manager

Summer Service Opportunities in the Cypress Area

By: Aranka Barbe
Cypress Woods Key Club Junior Representative

Summer: that time of year every high school student looks forward to the most. For Cy Woods High School Key Club members, however, it means having copious amounts of time to volunteer and serve the community.

Because wildlife flourishes in summer's plentiful sunlight, neighborhood parks need a lot of maintenance. To make their neighborhoods look their best, students can call their Home Owner's Association and offer to trim or mow these parks, or even build a bench or picnic table to make them more people-friendly.

For those who would rather stay indoors, nursing homes are always looking for extra hands. Seniors who need assistance doing everyday tasks often don't have many visitors and spend much of their time without company. Spending time with them can teach teens compassion as well as brighten the day of the community's elderly. Food banks also need helpers. Organizing food drives and distributing the items donated is a great way for Key Club members to volunteer during the summer because it supports the lives of those in need.

Over the course of the year everyone accumulates old paraphernalia that isn't used, but is still in usable condition. An efficient way to get rid of this "junk" is to host a yard sale and donate the proceeds to charities, reducing trash and giving back to the community simultaneously. The items that were not sold can also be donated to organizations like Cypress Assistance Ministries or Goodwill.

Everyone loves animals, and a fun way to turn this love into community service is by volunteering in animal care at the Cypress Science Resource Center. During the school year, volunteers visit elementary schools throughout the district to teach kids about various animals and animal behavior by exhibiting live critters. These furry teachers need to be cared for year-round, and summer is an especially fun time to help because the more time you spend with the animals, the better you get to know them. Animal shelters also look for animal-friendly volunteers, but unfortunately often have an age limit for applicants. For those who are eligible, caring for rescue animals is a fulfilling way to spend the summer.

Although most teens spend their summer relaxing, not all members of the community have this luxury. Troops overseas are in constant need of personal care items and means of amusement. Donating extra (unopened) containers of shampoo, toothpaste, magazines, books, etc. to organizations like Cypress Cares supports our forces abroad.

Cypress has lots of volunteering opportunities during the summer, and for any Key Club member looking to catch up, keep up, or get ahead on their hours, they don't have to look far to find service opportunities that fit them.

How Key Club Changed My Life

By: Nikki Carter
Cypress Woods Key Club Editor

For my freshman and sophomore years, I was a part of Key Club. However, I use the word “part” very loosely. My friends were joining. It looked good on college applications. Sometimes we get fed at the events. It sounded appealing enough to me, so I joined. Why not, right? I went to the meetings and completed my hours on time, figuring that was all there was to it. At the end of my sophomore year, I applied to be a Junior Representative; I needed another leadership position to list for my National Honor Society application. I got the position with no idea that it would turn out to be one of the best developments of not only my high school career, but my life. It was after this promotion that I finally threw myself completely into the wonderful world of Key Club and figured out that it is so much more than a bullet point on a college application.

Volunteering is a strange concept to many. One gives of his own time and resources willingly to help someone else and expects nothing in return. In a society so focused on personal material growth, the motivation behind this notion is confusing. However, one detail that is overlooked by those with a financial mindset is that the volunteer actually does get something in return. It sounds cliché, but the sense of worth that one gains after helping another is something that can't be bought or exchanged, and it makes one forget about and not mind not getting paid for his time. This is a fact that I have come to know throughout my time as a Key Clubber; the long, late hours of working concessions at sporting events and the impatient, frustrated parents of Jr. High cup stackers could never dampen my spirits enough to make me want to stop giving my time, because it's not about my own comfort at all.

Another aspect of volunteering that I haven't truly experienced anywhere else is the knowledge that no matter your race, gender, social circle, or past, you can always find a place to belong in Key Club. At my first DCON this past April, I was blown away by how friendly and accepting everybody was. The spirit of volunteering carries over easily into Key Clubbers' social interactions; we put others before ourselves. Making a first-timer like me feel welcome and comfortable at a giant convention like DCON was more important to seasoned attendees than sitting and talking with old friends. That's a hard thing for most high schoolers to do, and it demonstrates just how incredible the bond is between people who live their lives for others.

This organization is so much more than an extracurricular activity to those who truly pour their hearts and souls into it. Key Club has become a beacon of light in my own life by offering me countless opportunities to do the same in the lives of other people, which is, in itself, priceless.

Have Book. Will Donate.

By Gaurav Lalsinghani, Cypress Woods Key Club Representative Coordinator

The course of nature is in harmony during the summer months as the activities of Cypress Woods Key Club continue. Along with recruiting new and eager members, we have occupied ourselves with various donations, events, and socials. In order to encourage literacy and celebrate the wealth of reading, the Cypress Woods Key Club, along with several other Division 3N Key Clubs, will be collecting books, school supplies, and back-to-school necessities at summer Presidential Council Meetings and other various events to mitigate the worry of financially-struggling families.

I feel this project is significantly important for two major reasons. One being that it is unarguably aimed at celebrating and bolstering children. This is such a great cause in general, but it is also in accordance to the motto of Kiwanis International: Serving the Children of the World. This allows us to support the goals of our parent organization and thus our club itself. Furthermore, the donation drive encourages literacy and thus will teach the importance of reading to the children affected. Even more, this project will also teach them the importance of education in general.

Such a valuable outcome facilitates the success and progress of the leaders of tomorrow. Our simple donations are stepping stones for children who aim for a better future, wisdom wells for the students whose thirst for knowledge is infinite, and escapes for individuals dreaming of prosperous future. As Dr. Seuss said, "The more that you read, the more things you know. The more you learn, the more places you'll go."

In the course of these summer months, many books will be donated and will begin their journey to transform the lives of many children, eager to learn and prosper. And hopefully, these children will grow to transform the lives of even more people. A cycle as elegant as this could transform the world undoubtedly for the better. The practicality and applicability of such an event are simple, allowing clubs across T-O to partner up with neighboring organizations and small businesses to reach out to the entire community. The efforts of Key Clubbers are the first steps towards such a future, and I encourage you to fervently imitate these steps in this positive direction for the sake of children everywhere.
