Wine Fair Cy-Fair

The community will gather to enjoy fine wines, fabulous food and socializing with neighbors at the third-annual Wine Fair Cy-Fair on April 5 at Cypress Village Station and at the upscale One Fine Affair on April 4 at the Alamo at Northwest Forest Conference Center.

Wine Fair features 125+ wines, 15+ restaurants and food tasting-tables serving signature specials, The Backyard Grill Beer Garden, a Home Zone and the Aruba Live Music stage. Wine Fair is a community-wide party benefitting Reach Unlimited.

The evening will be packed with engaging experiences such as displays from local artisans and community businesses. Guests will sway and dance the night away to the captivating tunes of the Robert Hartye Band, and fundraising for Reach will feature a wine pull, gift baskets, restaurant certificates and great swag donated by local businesses.

The vendor village welcomes art, jewelry, food products and everything in between. For the pampered treatment, The Loken Group VIP Premium room boasts relaxed seating, restroom facilities and great views along with premium wine selections and delicious food offerings provided by La Madeleine Country French Café.

The Backyard Grill Beer Garden showcases craft beer offerings as well as signature nibbles from Backyard Grill and Backyard Smokehouse.

Wine Fair Cy-Fair is a collaboration between the Cy-Fair Houston Chamber of Commerce and Food & Vine Time Productions, the organization that produces the world-class Wine & Food Week in The Woodlands, Brewmasters Craft Beer Festival, Zest in the West, Katy Sip n Stroll, the wildly popular Haute Wheels Houston The Food Truck Festival and the newly announced Big Brew Houston Craft Beer Celebration.

“This is a unique, once-a-year opportunity for the community to come together to socialize and have a great time while enjoying high-quality wines, craft beers and foods,” said Founder & Co-Producer Constance McDerby. “And we get to benefit a worthy cause by helping to support a local community partner in Reach Unlimited.”

Leslie Martone, President of the Cy-Fair Houston Chamber of Commerce, said, “The first two years of this great event were huge successes – better than we could have hoped for. And really, we expect this year to be even more fun and successful. As a Chamber, our focus is on the community, and we’re proud to present this type of community-wide event.”

10 POWERHOUSE FOODS THAT WILL HELP YOU BURN FAT

Marissa Balch - CPT, Nutrition Coach - Texas Fit Chicks Boot Camp

1. Oatmeal - Great source of soluble fiber and slow-digesting carbohydrates that will keep blood sugar and insulin in check so fat burning can stay high.

2. Eggs - A form of well-absorbed protein, healthy fats and Vitamin D (found in the egg yolk). Eggs also contain lecithin, which promotes healthy liver function, thereby helping the body to burn fat.

3. Salmon - High in omega-3 fatty acids, salmon reduces inflammation in the body and lowers LDL and triglyceride levels while raising good HDL levels. Salmon also has a beneficial effect on leptin (hunger hormone) levels in the body, which means it helps to suppress your appetite.

4. Nuts - Another source of fiber and rich in omega-3s, these fats help to regulate blood sugar and protect the heart and the immune system.

5. Grapefruit & Berries - These fruits contain slow-digesting carbs and are rich in fat-fighting fiber. Strawberries, raspberries, blueberries and blackberries all are loaded with soluble fiber and antioxidants that protect blood vessels and promote healthy blood flow.

6. Avocado - It's got fat, yes, but the good kind! The monounsaturated fats found in avocado are burned readily for fuel during exercise and actually encourage fat burning. Good source of fiber and antioxidants.

7. Leafy Greens - Broccoli, specifically, is a fibrous carb that can make you feel full quickly—one reason why it's a great food for getting lean. Broccoli also contains phytochemicals that can help enhance fat loss.

8. Cinnamon - Helps to reduce blood sugar levels, which in turn prevents the body from storing sugar as fat. Add it to your oatmeal and yogurt to enhance flavor without adding calories.

9. Green Tea - Drink this! Not only is green tea packed with antioxidants, it also contains catechins, a phytochemical that helps speed up metabolism and burn more fat.

10. Beans & Legumes - Great sources of protein and they normalize insulin levels and help keep your blood sugar steady throughout the day. Black beans, Garbanzo beans, red beans and lentils are all great to incorporate into your diet.

TENNIS TIPS

How To Execute The One Handed Backhand Lob

In previous newsletters, I offered tips on how to hit the forehand groundstroke, the two-handed backhand, the one-handed backhand, the forehand volley, the two handed backhand volley, the serve, the forehand half-volley, the one-handed backhand volley, the overhead “smash”, the forehand service return, the backhand service return, the forehand high volley approach shot, the two handed high volley approach shot, the one-handed high volley approach shot, the forehand lob, and the two-handed backhand lob.

In this issue, I will offer instructions on how to execute the One-Handed Backhand Lob. This shot is used when a player is forced to retrieve a ball that is hit deep to the backhand side of the player, and the opponent is either charging to the net or staying far back. The player hitting the lob is looking for “air time” to regain balance and court space. This ball should be hit high enough so the players at the net cannot reach and “slam” the ball down, or force the opponent at the base line to retrieve back. In the illustrations, Ceci Griffis, a Member of the Grey Rock Tennis Club, shows the proper technique to execute this stroke.

Step 1: The Back Swing: When Ceci is forced deep into the backhand side and realizes that she has to hit a defensive lob, she pivots to the left and gets her racket back early. Notice that the head of the racket is low and her left hand is on the throat of the racket. Her eyes are focused on the path of the ball and her weight is on her left foot.

Step 2: The Point of Contact: Ceci is now ready to hit the ball. Her eyes are now focused on the point of contact and the face of the racket is tilted at a 45 degree angle in order to create height and depth on her lob. Her goal is to keep her head still and not start looking up to her opponent or to the other side of the court. She has released her left hand from the racket and is keeping good balance with both arms to keep the center of gravity in front of her right foot.

Step 3: The Follow Through: The success of a deep lob is the follow through. Ceci’s right knuckles are leading the stroke and her left arm is pulling back to keep her balanced. Her shoulder is lifting the racket above her head. Her right hand controls the path of the ball, and the left arm keeps her from turning her hip too early

Step 4: The Shuffle Back: Once Ceci finishes the stroke, her goal is to either move forward toward the net top to hit an overhead, or to shuffle back to the middle of the court in order to drive the next ball back to the opponent. In this caption, she moved back to the center of the court waiting for the opponent’s shot to come back.

MARLEY

Urgent need for this beautiful and unique Pointer Mix
Marley is a one-year-old Pointer mix (possibly a Boxer).

He was picked up as a stray by the City of Houston Animal Control (BARC) and was rescued just a few minutes before he was to be put down.

Marley weighs about 42 lbs., is up-to-date on all shots, neutered, heart worm negative and microchipped. He is crate-trained, housebroken, and also has had professional training from the time we rescued him and knows basic commands. Our boy has a very sweet and loving disposition, he is very smart and loyal. He is energetic, loves to run, and go on long walks.

He does well if the family has another dog too. Marley loves laying next to his person and getting tummy rubs. He is excellent for any kind of human interactive sports as he is very in tune with a possible owner. That could be YOU! Won't you open your heart and home to Marley?

Marley can be visited at his boarding facility anytime.
