Houston, Texas (October 7, 2014) With 2015 quickly approaching, it's the perfect time to start thinking about goals for the New Year. Reba Charleston, speaker and lifestyle coach, will lead a fun method of goal setting engaging a number of your senses and with a focus on visualization.

At the Thursday, Nov. 20 Cy-Fair Express Network luncheon, attendees will learn how to create a powerful tool that can serve as an image of the future, representing dreams, goals, and an ideal life. The end result will be both empowering and gratifying.

Among some areas for goal setting are professional, health, family, financial, romantic, spiritual and community. In her interactive presentation, Charleston will share different representational techniques using art and craft materials and social media technology.

To create a personal vision board, bring blank poster boards or construction paper, glue, scissors and magazines or other documents – with pictures, words and phrases that inspire, motivate, and empower- which can be cut up and attached to a vision board.

Aligning herself with individuals to achieve specific goals in growth, productivity, mental and physical wellness, and personal and organizational excellence, this Zumba® fitness instructor and natural practitioner loves to bring fun into everything she does and to inspire healthy, energetic movement.

“Reba’s presence will be an exciting addition to this meeting,” said Jessica Smith, CYFEN president. “Women in attendance will have much to gain by her expertise and shared knowledge.”

This month’s CYFEN meeting is an extended session and begins with networking at 10:30 a.m. followed with a prompt 11:00 a.m. start of the program. Due to the Thanksgiving holiday the luncheon will be held a week earlier than the customary fourth Thursday. Luncheons are held at the Sterling Country Club, 16500 Houston National Blvd.
