LOEN Ladies Get 2017 Off to a Great Start

Ladies, do you want to meet your neighbors and make new friends? Then join us for the 2017 the LOEN Ladies Club Open House and Membership Drive on Tuesday, January 24, 2017 in the LOEN Clubhouse. This meeting is when existing members renew their membership and ladies wanting to meet us and learn more about us can come to check us out.

The evening kicks off at 6:30pm with a Potluck Social Hour where those attending bring a small entrée, side dish, or dessert to share with iced tea, water, and coffee provided. This social time is filled with delicious food from around the world and gives everyone a chance to meet and greet both old friends and newcomers. The General Meeting follows at 7:30 pm.

Our Ladies Club is a dynamic organization dedicated to helping LOEN ladies meet their neighbors and creating lasting friendships.

We achieve this by supporting diverse clubs that meet monthly in LOEN and around town. These monthly activities include two Book Clubs, Bridge, Bunco, Brunch, Dinner, Girls Night Out, and Explorers clubs. We also have Angels Club, a LOEN outreach group, exclusively serving the residents in need of food assistance due to illness, death, or family additions. Our club also proudly supports the surrounding community by sponsoring a program to supply donated food, toys, supplies, or clothing to designated local charitable organizations. With all these options available, you will have many opportunities to become involved and meet new people.

LOEN ladies, if we sound like an organization that you'd like to be a part of, then please join us on Tuesday, January 24 in the LOEN Clubhouse. For more information, please contact Jeanne MacKenzie at loenladiesclubpresident@gmail.com.

WOMEN EMPOWERING WOMEN EXPRESS NETWORK

The Women Empowering Women Express Network (WEWEN) of the American Business Women's Association (ABWA) invites you to attend a Monthly Networking Luncheon on January 4th, 2017. The luncheon will be held at the Raveneaux Country Club at 9715 Cypresswood Dr., Spring Texas, 77379. Open Networking begins at 11:00AM, followed by an informative program and lunch from 11:30AM-1:00PM. This month's program features Dr. Melanie Brown, head CenterPoint Energy's Strategic Execution Office in Technology Operations, presenting a program titled, "Ignite your future: the burning fuel of engaging, enriching, and expanding to become an unstoppable force."

In our constantly fast-past world of relationships and careers, we cannot rely on past successes to keep us going. We must be fierce in seeking opportunities to be vibrant, relevant, and distinctively unique in innovative ways that allow us to embrace the past and transform the future. In this captivating and high-energy presentation, Dr. Brown will share her experiences as a chemist, strategist, and entrepreneur on how to:

- Spark curiosity and generate a buzz.
- Create a culture of being at the "cool-kid" table.
- Embrace the abundance mindset.
- Discover untapped potential energy.
- Adopt the 90/10 rule of conversations.
- Be inspired to mentor and be mentored.
- Use passion as a catalyst to journey pathways of success.

Expand your network, grow your business skills, reach a new audience, or advance your career with the Women Empowering Women Express Network of ABWA. WEWEN meets the first Wednesday of each month from 11AM-1PM. Additional details and luncheon registration ($25) are available at wewen.org. Contact communications@wewen.org with questions.

Sixth Annual Fashion with Passion Raises Almost $60,000

Class of 2017 Fundraises for the Jordan Merecka Caring Heart Fund and the Travis Chaffin Memorial Scholarship Fund

On Thursday, November 3rd, Celebrating Soul Cypress, soon to be rebranded to “Deep Cypress Neighbors,” hosted its sixth annual Fashion with Passion Event at the Enchanted Cypress Ballroom. Students of Class of 2017 from Cy Fair High School, Cy Woods High School and Cypress Christian School, who served as the models began their fundraising journey eight months prior to this event by participating in the Cypress Challenge, #17DaysofKindness. The challenge required each model to commit to 1 act of kindness per day in order to raise awareness for the programs of Celebrating Soul Cypress, such as changing a flat tire or preparing snack bags for the homeless.

This year, the event raised almost $60,000, which benefits individuals and families who have experienced financial setbacks due to traumatic experiences. Additionally, the event’s proceeds go toward the Travis Chaffin Memorial Scholarship Fund for youth who demonstrate a strong character and heart for philanthropy.

Over 300 community members participate in this event each year. At the event, the Jordan Merecka Caring Heart Award is presented recognizing the individuals who have experienced a traumatic situation and turned it into something positive, providing inspiration to their fellow community members. The recipients of this year’s Jordan Merecka Caring Heart Award were Clyde and Melinda Gordon of Abby’s Gift.

In addition, some local Cypress boutiques were in attendance at the event. Participants included: Anything Bling in Vintage, Muzzies, Al’s Formalwear, Damsels & Blokes Salon, Chelsea B Cosmetics, and Dillard’s Men’s Department.

Next year’s Fashion with Passion event will be held in November 2017.

Rosehill Christian School Cheer Team

The RCS Eagle Pride Dance team had a very strong showing at the TAPPS State Dance Championships, which were held December 8-9 at the Arlington Convention Center. RCS Dance Director, Rochelle Lauve, said she was so proud of the attitude and effort demonstrated by the students on the team, many of whom were freshmen, and looks forward to the future as this team continues to grow, improve, and expand. The RCS Dance team glorified God in all that they did, bonded as teammates, and even met some new friends. As a small group performing a lyrical and pom routine, the Rosehill Eagle Pride Dance Team placed third overall, receiving state bronze medals in a very competitive field. The Dance team members are: Katie Hebert (Senior, Captain), Brooke Knighten (Freshman, Co-Captain), Yaminel Arzola (Senior), Mackensey Doyle (Freshman), and Madison Stoyak (Freshman). There were also individual all-state honors:

FINDING RESOLUTION

I am a goal-oriented, list-making individual. It's how I'm wired, and it has helped me be productive and successful in many ways. However, being goal-oriented doesn't always work so well when building relationships. What if the other individual doesn't have the same goals as you do?

This has been the case many times in my life, and my tendency was to bulldoze over them with my lack of concern for their goals. My goals were better, more thought out, more important, etc. What does that do to this relationship that I valued to work on so much? It completely undermines the whole thing! So, how did I learn to stop this destructive pattern in my relationships? Horses!

How many of you have tried to get an animal that weighs over 1000 pounds to meet your personal goals? It's not easy. Yes, it is possible to force them to do many things, but can you catch them easily the next day? Do they really want to have a relationship with you after you have met said goals? Mine didn't.

Mine ran away and fought many things I tried to "teach". What did it take for me to listen to the horse's thought on our relationship? An unplanned dismount is the nicest way I've heard it phrased. When a horse goes to bucking, it is pretty clear it doesn't respect your leadership. A wise man once asked me what happened before that buck. I answered, "Lots of little things that I ignored, actually."

I'm too old to ignore those little signals anymore. It hurts to hit the ground with that kind of force! As I've learned to listen to horses better, it has also helped me to listen to people better. Have you ever asked a friend what they want to receive out of the relationship you have? Do they have needs that aren't being met? If they aren't treated respectfully and valued, they may not stick around.

Setting goals is still helpful, especially in helping me think of the steps to help myself achieve them. I just want to make sure I am not ruining relationships along the way. So, my goal setting looks different now as I make sure it includes the friends I value the most.

These are a few of my relational goal ideas for the next year. They are all oriented toward preventing those blow ups, like my horse gave me, with one of my friends or husband.

Be a better friend by:

1. When feeling annoyed or offended- stopping to question why and if it is really that important?
2. Plan monthly dates to build relationships.
3. Check in with my friends to find out their needs, before they ask!
4. Be more available by being less BUSY- say no to more things, so I can say yes to important ones.
5. LISTEN better- friends are giving you early signs of needs, but we are distracted with our own.

If you find these things to be true in your own life, and would like to make a change, please visit our website at www.fivehorses.com to learn more about our new Goal-Setting Workshop this January

NEW YEAR TRIVIA

"Happy New Year!" That greeting will be said and heard for at least the first couple of weeks as a new year gets under way. But the day celebrated as New Year's Day in modern America was not always January 1.

ANCIENT NEW YEARS: The celebration of the new year is the oldest of all holidays. It was first observed in ancient Babylon about 4000 years ago. In the years around 2000 BC, the Babylonian New Year began with the first New Moon (actually the first visible crescent) after the Vernal Equinox (first day of spring). The beginning of spring is a logical time to start a new year. After all, it is the season of rebirth, of planting new crops, and of blossoming. January 1, on the other hand, has no astronomical nor agricultural significance. It is purely arbitrary. The Babylonian New Year celebration lasted for eleven days. Each day had its own particular mode of celebration, but it is safe to say that modern New Year's Eve festivities pale in comparison. The Romans continued to observe the new year in late March, but their calendar was continually tampered with by various emperors so that the calendar soon became out of synchronization with the sun. In order to set the calendar right, the Roman senate, in 153 BC, declared January 1 to be the beginning of the new year.

But changes continued until Julius Caesar, in 46 BC, established what has come to be known as the Julian Calendar. It again established January 1 as the New Year.

NEW YEAR TRADITIONS: Traditions of the season include the making of New Year's resolutions. That tradition also dates back to the early Babylonians. Popular modern resolutions might include the promise to lose weight or quit smoking. The early Babylonian's most popular resolution was to return borrowed farm equipment. The tradition of using a baby to signify the new year was begun in Greece around 600 BC. It was their tradition at that time to celebrate their God of Wine, Dionysus, by parading a baby in a basket, representing the annual rebirth of that God as the spirit of fertility. Early Egyptians also used a baby as a symbol of rebirth.

AULD LANG SYNE: The song, "Auld Lang Syne," is sung at the stroke of midnight in almost every English-speaking country in the world to bring in the New Year. At least partially written by Robert Burns in the 1700's, it was first published in 1796 after Burns' death. Early variations of the song were sung prior to 1700 and inspired Burns to produce the modern rendition. An old Scotch tune, "Auld Lang Syne" literally means "old long ago," or simply, "the good old days."
